REMARIED AFTER THIRTY YEARS OF DIVORCE

Son Ends Long Estrangement of Mrs. Frances Irene Wetmore of Belen and William Wetmore of San Francisco.

Through the efforts of their son, Mrs. Frances Irene Wetmore of Belen and her divorced husband, William Wetmore of San Francisco, bridged an estrangement lasting three decades and remarried. They were divorced thirty years ago.

The marriage took place in this city July 7. The unusual story behind the wedding was disclosed here by way of Jackson, Mich., and Los Angeles, Cal. A dispatch in a Los Angeles paper this week from Jackson said that it had just been learned there that the Wetmores had remarried. Mrs. Wetmore is the daughter of the late John Bush Richard, one of Jackson's most prominent citizens during his lifetime.

The home took at the county courthouse this afternoon disclosed the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore took out a license here July 7 and were married the same day. Rev. Archie Posthaken performed the ceremony.

Forty years ago, the Jackson dispatch says, the Wetmores' first marriage was one of the big social events of the town. Ten years later they were divorced. Through the thirty years they lived apart their son Hugh remained friendly with and attached to both, and through his efforts, it is said, the reconciliation took place.

over a woman and requested that nothing be said regarding his visit or wound. The doctor not having heard of the murders, treated the wound and took Hillstrom to a house where he had been staying for several days. News of the murders reached the city to the doctor and he informed the officers. The doctor found an antique mirror placed of the same caliber as shells found in the grocery after the shooting. In Hillstrom's pocket, Hillstrom threw the weapon away after leaving the doctor's home. Blood was found at several places between the store and the home of the doctor and members of the family where Hillstrom lived and a companion had visited him late the night of the murders, talked privately with him and left. This man was not apprehended and has not been heard of since.

The Morrison boy, because of the marks and confusion of the shooting, was not able to identify Hillstrom, except in general description of his size and clothing, but another witness gave a minute and particular description of Hillstrom as one of the assassins seen in bright moonlight near an electric car lamp with snow on the ground. Hillstrom also was identified as a man who visited the store the afternoon of the murders and talked with Morrison.

Hillstrom's recovery from his wound was rapid and complete. He has always maintained his innocence, but has never told where he was the night of the murders or who shot him. He created a scene at his trial by dramatically discharging his attorney to open court, later giving as his reason their failure to "convince" Morrison to press on cross examination, referring to the boy who witnessed the shooting. He refused to go on the witness stand himself or to offer any evidence as to where he was or who he did the night of the murders. He was found guilty by the trial jury; the judgment was affirmed by the supreme court, and the board of pardons, after an exhaustive review of the case, declined to commute his sentence at death.

He was sentenced to a shot October 1 and was reprieved by Governor Spry September 26 at the request of President Wilson, who acted on a request of the Swedish minister. The case had previously been investigated for the Swedish minister to the Swedish vice consul for Utah, a well-known attorney, who advised that his investigation developed nothing that would justify the board of pardons in commuting the sentence.

William D. Hayward is expected to address two thousand Toledo workmen tonight in protest of the execution.

A request made by five local I. W. O. members to be permitted to carry out the execution of Hillstrom has been ignored by Governor Spry and they have decided not to go to Salt Lake City.
